Goodbye Jane

Jane Watts our Big Shed Development Officer is leaving in mid August to pursue some of her other interests. Jane started with us in April 2010, just as the building work commenced, and has been a vital influence in creating the facility that we enjoy today. Much of this work goes on behind the scenes at the Big Shed, organising events, answering phone calls and emails, putting up posters and making sure everything runs smoothly. Jane's contacts in the world of classical music meant that she was able to persuade top musicians to come and play in a tiny venue in a remote field in Highland Perthshire! Now we are 'on the map' as far as classical music is concerned, and we hope this will long continue. Thank you Jane!
