Hallo Gwen

We are very pleased to welcome Gwen Raes to the Big Shed as our new building manager. Originally from Belgium, she has lived in Scotland for three years, latterly as a seasonal ranger with the NTS in Killin. She is especially interested in good food, local food, the transition movement, and likes to bake. Her other interests include outside activities, learning to play the guitar, meeting people, and she is looking forward to welcoming visitors, new and old to Big Shed events.
