AMED DICKINSON & EDUARDO MARTIN

7.30 pm on Saturday 23rd March (doors open at 7)

A sophisticated virtuoso, Havana-born Dickinson Cardenas has performed at the Royal Albert Hall and played live on Radio 3 & BBC London. He has featured at guitar festivals including London Classical, Bath International, Sage, Kings Place Music Festival, Hispano-American Guitar Festival (Mexico), Identidades International Guitar Festival (Cuba) & Havana International Guitar Festival.

Over the last 10 years, Ahmed has established a successful career in the UK, whilst maintaining a performance profile and strong links with Cuba. More recently, he has been building a reputation for his original compositional style and will be performing his latest works in a series of concerts later this year.

Eduardo has written for guitar for theatre & cinema and for duos up to guitar orchestra. Since 1991 he has given concerts & master classes in Cuba, South America & Europe to great critical and public acclaim. He regularly judges international competitions and is guitar professor at Instituto Superior de Arte, Havana. His works have been published in Cuba, North and South America, Europe and Japan.

Tickets £10 at the door
